Dear Parents,

I hope everyone had a great week! We had a good week at school but we had to have a little behavior "tune up". The kids have forgotten some of the classroom and school rules so we are working to get back on track☺

The 2nd quarter started this week and 1st quarter report cards are posted to your family access on the school's website. If you have any questions or concerns about grades, please let me know. There are many concepts that we haven't covered yet so there will be many places on the report card marked with a (/). We will be getting to those concepts as the year goes on. Here is a look at the week ahead:

Reading: The students will be reading the story The Pigs, the Wolf, and the Mud. We will be learning words with the short u sound. The story quiz and spelling test will be next Friday.

Math: We will finish up our chapter on subtraction and take a quiz on the concepts we have learned. Then we will begin learning different strategies to use when adding such as counting on and touch points.

Soc. St.: We wrote letters to Veterans last week and learned about the sacrifices that they made for our country. Next week, we will be talking about the first Thanksgiving and learning the history behind the holiday since it is quickly approaching!

Please remember that students will not have school November 23rd, 24th, and 25th due to the Thanksgiving holiday. I hope you all have a great weekend and I'll see you on Monday!

~Annie
